

Proof online with UGP

Tip Details

Not what you ordered? Proofing online avoids unexpected results.

Save time. See a full color proof online before we process your order!

BEYOND A REASONABLE DOUBT

Think of how convenient it would be to see a proof immediately rather than wait for a PDF e-mail or courier. We provide you with a full color proof online just moments after you send us a job. No more guessing, no more surprises. Our proof will show you what your job will look like. You can even print a copy if you like.

POINT & CLICK

Simply click on our UGP-Copy in the "printer" list of your desktop publishing program. Create your document, and when finished, click File>Print >UGP-Copy to send us your job. You will be connected to our Web site where you can give us your job requirements.

YOU'RE IN CONTROL

After telling us what you want; you will be able to proof the finished job file online before we print it. Don't worry; we won't work on your job until you have accepted the proof. We even give you an automatic confirmation to avoid delay! If you find a problem, you can reject the proof.

CORRECTIONS ARE EASY TOO

If you find a problem on the proof, simply return to your original file, make the corrections, and click File>Print>UGP-Copy to repeat the proofing process. It's that easy! We are always looking for new ways to save you time. With our new proofing capability, you will see the difference from the convenience of your desktop.

AVAILABLE 24 HOURS A DAY

Talk about convenient, our new proofing system is available for your use whenever you need it day or night. If you would like more information about our online proofing system, just give us a call at 334-5220.
